ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court upon motion of the Defendant pro se for compassionate release based on the COVID-19 pandemic under 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A) and the First Step Act of 2018. (Doc. No. 19).

Section 603(b) of the First Step Act amended § 3582(c)(1)(A), which previously only allowed a court to reduce a term of imprisonment on motion of the Director of Prisons (BOP). Now a court may entertain a motion filed by a defendant: (1) after full exhaustion of all administrative rights to appeal a failure of the BOP to bring a motion on his behalf; or (2) after lapse of 30 days from the receipt of such a request by the warden of his facility, whichever is less.

Here, Defendant claims he requested compassionate release from the warden but attaches no copy of the request. Id. at 4, 10. Thus, the Court is unable to verify whether or not it was sent to or received by the warden. Further, the motion fails to show that the Defendant has fully exhausted his administrative rights to appeal a failure of the BOP to bring a motion on his behalf or that 30 days have elapsed from the warden's receipt of a request. Additionally, the Defendant claims to suffer from an irregular heartbeat, heart murmur and high blood pressure in support of his motion for compassionate release but fails to provide any BOP medical records. Therefore, the Court will not consider the merits of his claim. United States v. Raia, 954 F.3d 594, 595 (3d Cir. 2020) (denying motion for compassionate release based on COVID-19 where defendant did not seek relief from BOP).

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, that the Defendant's pro se motion for compassionate release (Doc. No. 19), is DENIED without prejudice to a renewed motion properly supported by evidence and after exhaustion of his administrative remedies.

SO ORDERED.
